BENEFITS OF LIFE INSURANDE.-The eneral adoption of life insurance would be a great public benefit, for it would reduce taxation and protect the public funds and the industry of the people. If every man upon whom others were dependent for support, would secure a life insurance policy, commensurate with wants of those who were thus dependent, poverty, want and suffering would soon become comparatively unknown, and Memphis Theater in a few days, for the pauperism and crime would be proportionately eradicated. GREAT ENTERTAINMENT.—One of the WHOLESALE DRY COODS HOUSE most pleasant affairs of the season came off yesterday at No. 36 Union street, on CRIMINAL COURT - Wm. Hunter, the occasion of the opening of the Crescent saloon, by Mr. Juo. O'Connor. The saloon has just been fitted up in the most chaste manner. The various liquors set out for the guests were the choicest the market could afford. Among the guests we noticed some of the military officers of the post, as well as the judicial and city officials; these, together with the legal element, to say nothing of representatives of the press, honored Mr. O'Connor with their presence. We trust that the business commenced under such favorable auspices may successfully coninue. At one time during the morning the saloon was so densely crowded that it had more the appearance of a young barbecue than a city saloon. Jim Gieason waits on the guests.
